Sure, you know someone who spent three years (or so) in the Law Quad. But how well do they know and remember the Law School, the University, and Ann Arbor? Test their knowledge—and make new discoveries—as you complete the Reunion Scavenger Hunt!

CAMPUS CONNECTIONS

- Take a panorama of the Dean’s Courtyard.
- Take a selfie in the Reading Room.
- Find the brass “M” embedded at the center of the Diag.
- Hail to the Victors! Get a picture with someone wearing a “Hail!” shirt.
- Count the number of window cartoons in Hutchins Hall and take a picture of your favorite.
- Find your favorite student organization or journal’s door or display board.
- Write down the inscription atop Angell Hall, famous words from the Northwest Ordinance of 1787.
- Take a photo with the pumas, Michigan’s native cats, flanking the new Natural History Museum set to open in 2019.
- Take a selfie with a group of U-M students.
- Find out how many college and university seals are in the Reading Room, and describe the location of U-M’s seal.
- Take a photo of the atlas figure (gargoyle) in the Law Quad representing the profession of law.
- The Hatcher Graduate Library also has a beautiful reading room. Step inside and take a picture.
- What time is it? Get a photo of the Burton Memorial Tower on the hour.

TURN THE PAGE FOR MORE FUN!
AROUND ANN ARBOR

- Take a stroll through Nickels Arcade.
- What’s playing at the Michigan Theater?
- U-M has 66 Greek chapters. Take a photo of some Greek letters on a house. Bonus: Pose for picture outside the Phi Delta Phi “Phid” House.
- Find and photograph at least one of Ann Arbor’s famous fairy doors.
- Find a children’s book that makes you laugh in Literati Bookstore.
- Take a picture of you and/or your loved ones enjoying some ice cream at Blank Slate Creamery.

YOU DID IT!

Post your photos to the Michigan Law Alumni & Friends Facebook page, and use #mlawreunion