Building Your Bid List

Since the EIW launch a few weeks ago, we hope you've had an opportunity to check out the EIW Student Site and the EIW 2019 Process Guide. Last week you took the first step towards building your bid list: researching firms and determining the firms/offices with which you want to interview. This week, you will begin to build and continuously refine your bid list with support from an Attorney-Counselor. Please schedule a bid list review appointment via Symplicity to take place between now and Friday, July 12. Bid list review appointments must be scheduled by Monday, June 3.

*Please note that only one bid list review appointment is needed for 2Ls. Bid list review appointments are optional for 3Ls.
The nuts and bolts of creating a bid list are reviewed on pages 8-13 of the EIW 2019 Process Guide. Additionally, check out the EIW Tip Sheet: How to Pick Firms for Your Bid List.

Bidding Highlights (from the EIW 2019 Guide):

- You have 30 bids to place on firms/offices. Your bid list is simply the list of firms you are interested in interviewing with during EIW, ranked from highest (i.e., 1) to lowest (i.e., 30+).
- You will first create your bid list in Excel using the EIW 2019 Bid List Template.
- Review your bid list with your OCP counselor during a bid list review appointment that you will schedule to take place between today and July 12. Please email your bid list to your Attorney-Counselor at least 24 hours in advance.

As a reminder, if you miss an email in this series, a PDF of each week's update can be found in the Archive section of the EIW Student Site.
